COLOR OUTSIDE THE LINES

Greene County is a diverse destination just east of Dayton, between Cincinnati and Columbus. Rare is the destination that provides activities at every turn, and yet, never hems you in. But here, in the rolling hills east of Dayton is a destination so free with itself, it defies conventional definitions. Instead, it is a diverse mix of attitudes and adjectives: laid-back, creative, friendly, beautiful, agricultural, energy, flight, freedom, tradition and spirit. And while it may have a structured side, it's never routine.

Come outside just beyond the limits of the city where you can summon the child-like joy of adventure of discovering something new and unexpected. Come to Greene County, to a place that inspires creativity at every turn.

Imagine a palette of seasonal amber against dark rich earth, the bright red of a barn against rows of organic greens... Now take all those colors of nature's color palette and Color outside the lines!

Dayton Aviation Heritage National Historical Park

The human imagination found its highest expression in three men from Dayton, Ohio: Wilbur and Orville Wright, first to fly a powered, heavier-than-air machine and creators of the practical airplane, and Paul Laurence Dunbar, who with his compelling new voice was the first African American writer to win high distinction in American literature. Dayton Aviation Heritage commemorates the lives and legacies of these three exceptional men and the history of aviation. ## WHERE TO RIDE

Little Miami Scenic Trail (Xenia to Urbana)

It is 15.8 miles from Xenia Station to Beatty in Clark County. After Yellow Springs the trail passes mostly farm fields and is less shaded. The paved shared-use trail ends at the I-70 overpass north of Beatty. By following city streets and some segments of bike paths, it is possible to ride 3.9 miles to Veterans' Park in downtown Springfield. From there it is 5.76 miles on the Buck Creek Trail to Buck Creek State Park and 16.6 miles on the Simon Kenton Trail to the Urbana YMCA in Champaign County.

Little Miami Scenic Trail (Xenia to Newtown)

It is 56.4 miles from Xenia Station south to Newtown. The name of the trail is derived from the fact that it follows the Little Miami River Valley. Also known as the Bullskin Trace, the Little Miami River Valley has served as a corridor of travel for over ten thousand years. Parts of the valley predate the Wisconsin Glacier, which set the current drainage system, having been part of the now extinct Teays River System that flowed north to Fort Wayne, Indiana. This section is very shaded with an abundance of natural serenity.

Staging areas with parking & restrooms.

Spring Valley: On Main Street off SR 725 on south edge of Spring Valley.

Creekside Trail (Xenia to Dayton)

It is 15.21 miles from Xenia Station to Eastwood MetroPark in Montgomery County. The trail passes through wooded areas, farm fields, and wetlands and is known for the multitude of wildflowers.

It is possible to ride through Eastwood MetroPark to connect to the Mad River Bikeway and the Great Miami River Corridor Bikeway.

Staging areas with parking & restrooms.

Xenia: James Ranch and Fairground Recreation Center on Fairground Road next to Fairgrounds.

Beavercreek Station: North Fairfield Road off US 35. Beavercreek Community Park on Factory Road

Ohio to Erie Trail (Xenia to London)

It is 28.67 miles from Xenia Station to the Madison County Senior Center on the west side of London. It is possible to follow bike route signs one mile to an additional 6.5 miles of trail. This is a straight trail that parallels US 42 as it passes through a beautiful rural landscape and is well known for the variety and proliferation of wild flowers and birds. Very little of this trail is shaded. When complete, the Ohio to Erie Trail will connect the Ohio River at Cincinnati to Lake Erie at Cleveland and be over 400 miles in length.

Staging areas with parking & restrooms.

The Greene

The best way to describe The Greene is to imagine a village with shops surrounding green open space surrounded by shops, apartments, restaurants, and entertainment. The Greene is a great destination for shopping and dining with over 70 shops and 25 restaurants to choose from. If you're looking for a glass of wine outdoors overlooking the 'Greene', try McCormick and Schmick's, Brio Tuscan Grill or the Cheesecake Factory. Books and Co., a two story book lover's paradise, features book signings several times a month. Rave Cinema offers 14 movie theaters and if it's laughter you're after, the Funny Bone Comedy Club is a fun place to go with a group. I-675 and Indian Ripple Road. Beavercreek (937) 490-4990 • thegreene.com

Fairborn's Main Street

Rediscover the nostalgia of downtown shopping in these unique and family-owned businesses: fine jewelry, optical fashions, flowers, musical instruments, specialty coffees, and one of the most unusual stores in Ohio- Foy's Five and Dime. Established in 1929, Foy's still sells the candy and toys of yesteryear and has the largest selection of Halloween costumes and merchandise in the midwest. Fairborn (937) 878-3191 • fairborn.com

The Mall at Fairfield Commons

Approximately a mile from the Nutter Center on North Fairfield Road is the Mall at Fairfield Commons. With two levels of shops you're bound to find what you're looking for. Macy's, Elder Beerman's, Dicks Sporting Goods, Sears, and JC Penney's round out the anchor stores with everything in between totaling nearly 100 stores. Spinoza's Pizza located on the second floor near Sears has great craft beers, pizza and local entertainment. Beavercreek (937) 427-4300 mallatfairfieldcommons.com
